

Graduate Assistantships are awarded to applicants (Master's, Doctoral, or Artist Diploma) who bring unique talent and experience to Shenandoah Conservatory. Work assignments may include graphic design, program preparation, recital crew, recital scheduling, office support and participation in ensembles, if appropriate. Expected workload is ten to twenty hours of service per week depending upon the terms of the award.

Full and Half Assistantships are offered at the graduate level.

- Full Assistantship covers 9 credits per semester and includes a $2000 annual stipend.
- Half Assistantship covers 4.5 credits per semester and includes a $1000 annual stipend.

Awards are renewable for two years pending satisfactory performance of assigned duties.

Applicants to Master's, Doctoral and Artist Diploma programs at Shenandoah Conservatory may apply for assistantship consideration any time after their Shenandoah University application has been submitted. However, no applicant will be offered an assistantship until they have successfully completed all admission procedures (including an audition) and have been admitted.
