

Shenandoah University Student Loan Code of Conduct

To comply with the 2008 Higher Education Opportunity Act, enacted August 14, 2008, Shenandoah University adopts the following an Code of onduct to serve as the guiding principles in ensuring the integrity of the student financial aid process. All Shenandoah University employees who have responsibilities with respect to educational loans are required to comply with this Student Loan Code of Conduct.

1. Neither Shenandoah University

